COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

STATE CORPORATION COMMISSION

AT RICHMOND, JULY 31, 2002

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA, ex rel.

STATE CORPORATION COMMISSION

v.

CASE NO. PUE-2001-00072

AUBON WATER COMPANY,

Defendant

ORDER VACATING
STAFF PREFILING DATE

Pursuant to the Order Approving Emergency Rates ("Emergency Order") issued in this case on May 10, 2002, the State Corporation Commission ("Commission"), ordered the Staff to make an investigation of the application for emergency rates filed herein and to file its Report on or before July 30, 2002.

On July 30, 2002, the Staff filed a Motion to Modify Procedure which requested that the prefiling date for its report be vacated and that a procedural order be issued directing the Staff to report its investigation by prefiled testimony following the anticipated closing of the loan to finance improvements for the Long Island Estates subdivision. The Staff recommends that the emergency rates approved herein be considered in a public hearing pursuant to § 56-245 of the Code of Virginia.

The Commission is of the opinion that Staff's Motion to Modify Procedure should be granted.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

(1) The prefiling date of July 30, 2002, for Staff's report of its investigation of emergency rates is hereby vacated.

(2) A procedural order will be issued following the closing of the loan to finance improvements for the Long Island Estates subdivision and, in any event, within sufficient time to receive the report or testimony of Staff's investigation and to convene a public hearing on Aubon's emergency rates pursuant to § 56-245 of the Code of Virginia.

(3) This matter is continued for further Orders of the Commission.
